

I pay for these services and it should not be up to the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate what I am permitted to hear. Listening to XM Radio traffic and weather channels helps me in my job getting through certain cities where I need to know traffic now not 20 minutes from now !